Recruitment 2023 Timeline

Date/Time	Event	Details	Parent/guardian accompaniment?
Late Jan 2023, Tuesday 6:30pm - 9:30pm	Recruitment evenings start	Come in for an information session and some introductory activities to see if our squadron is for you. You can submit an NZCF 2 Enrolment Form once you have decided. If you have submitted an NZCF 2, you may attend this parade night as a recruit.	Yes if NZCF 2 is not submitted. If NZCF 2 form has been submitted, then you may attend without your parent/guardian with you.
Jan-Feb 2023, Tuesday 6:30pm - 9:30pm	Recruitment evenings continue (around 5 weeks)	If you have submitted an NZCF 2, you can continue to attend parade nights as a recruit. Information evenings for new recruits will continue, where they will join you after enrolment.	As above.
Mid-late Feb 2023, Saturday 9am-3pm	Uniform sizing	Our Stores Officer will set a date for you to come in to get your uniform sized up. Once this is complete, they will be issued to you at Basic Boot Camp. You do not have to stay for the whole day - only long enough to be sized up.	As above.
Early March 2023, Friday - Sunday	Basic Boot Camp	Compulsory for all new recruits to attend. You will receive permission slips once you have submitted an NZCF 2 form. This camp is where you will learn all the skills and knowledge required to operate as a cadet at unit level. Once completed, you will be assigned the rank of Cadet.	Not required. NZCF 2 should already be submitted by now.
